YANGI KALA • TURKMENBASHI

DAY 4

ASHGABAT – YANGI KALA – TURKMENBASHI

- Early breakfast at hotel. Drive to Yangi Kala.
- Visit the picturesque Yangi Kala canyons, located 165 km north of Balkanabat and 160 km east of Turkmenbashi. “Yangi Kala” translates from Turkmen as “Fiery Fortress”. The cliffs, carved by winds and rains, display colours of white, yellow, ocher, violet, and red, resembling stone castles from fantasy.
- Enjoy lunch.
- Next, visit Gözli Ata, one of Turkmenistan's most remote pilgrimage sites, surrounded by bands of pink and white stone escarpments. Gözli Ata was a respected Sufi who lived in the early 14th century. His mausoleum is a brick building with two white domes, standing in an old cemetery with many beautifully carved stone tombs.
- Drive to hotel to Turkmenbashi.
- Overnight stay in Turkmenbashi.
